Fellowships available for ISSS-13

Dear Colleagues,

The 13th International School/Symposium for Space Simulations (ISSS-13) is now accepting online applications for student travel support to attend ISSS-13 to be held on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) during September 6-14, 2018.

Please go to <https://conferences.pa.ucla.edu/ISSS13> and click on the Student Application link near the top of the page for more information and the application form.

Note that the deadline for student travel support applications is May 1st. 2018

Best Regards,

David Schriver
