

1st Announcement  Call for Topical Discussion Meetings

The ESWW is the main annual event in the European Space Weather calendar. The ESWW will again adopt the central aim of bringing together the diverse groups in Europe working on different aspects of Space Weather.

One of the strengths of the conference is that the participants can contribute largely to its content. Topical Discussion Meetings are an important part of the program and are organised by a round table format. Format of a Topical Discussion Meeting: <http://www.stce.be/esww14/tdm.php>
