Dear colleague,

I would be very grateful if you could forward this email to potentially interested colleagues at your institute.

The Instituto de Astrofísica de Canarias (IAC Tenerife, Spain) invites applications for one post-doctoral contract funded by the European Research Council (ERC) Advanced Grant project

“Polarized Radiation Diagnostics for Exploring the Magnetism of the Outer Solar Atmosphere” (POLMAG).

Candidates with working experience in solar magnetism and observational spectro-polarimetry are especially welcomed to apply.

The appointment is till 31st December 2022.

The deadline for receiving applications is 30th April 2018.
